Don’t think about it too much, just jot down those thoughts that keep swirling in your head. Your fears, your what-if’s, your stress - your struggles of any kind.

Choose to trust God as you take every thought captive.

When the enemy tries to taunt you with your thoughts again, remember this paper. You’ve given these to the Lord to handle so you don’t need to spend time worrying about them anymore.